Habitat for Humanity Update

Thanks again to all those who volunteered and contributed to our 2010 Build Day. The house that we worked on in May has been completed. The Cole Family will be moving into their new home at 2132 Medary Avenue on Saturday, December 18. There will be a dedication ceremony and housewarming from 3:00-4:30pm, and anyone who is interested is welcome to attend.

I talked to Habitat a few weeks ago to start gearing up for our 2011 Build Day. To kick things off, we will hold a Happy Hour fundraiser on Friday, January 14. The Happy Hour will be at the Fox and Hound, 1501 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, from 5:00pm to 7:30pm. The cost is $30 per person and includes an open bar, pizza, wings, and other selected hot hors d'oeuvres. Please RSVP to me at msanderspe@comcast.net if you plan on attending. Please extend the invitation to friends and colleagues as well.

Our 2011 Build Day is planned for a Saturday in April. We will schedule a firm date with Habitat as early as possible in the new year. We will need ten volunteers for the build day, and the fundraising goal is $2,500. Please contact me if you are interested in volunteering for the Build Day. I would also love for someone that would be interested in taking a leadership role and helping to recruit volunteers and donors.

We had a lot of fun in May, and I look forward to repeating that success in the New Year.
